

Queen Elizabeth II Scholarship

For graduates of *Universitas 21 universities

The University of Birmingham is delighted to offer the Queen Elizabeth II international scholarship, worth £10,000, to graduates of the Universitas 21 (U21) community. These scholarships are offered as a symbol of our commitment to the U21 network and the benefits of international educational co-operation.

In order to be eligible for consideration, you must be in your final year of a bachelor's degree at a partner Universitas 21 institution* or have graduated from a partner Universitas 21 institution within the last five years of the proposed date of entry to the University of Birmingham.

*International member institutions of Universitas 21 are: Fudan University, Lund University, McGill University, National University of Singapore, University of Auckland, University of British Columbia, University of Hong Kong, University of Melbourne, University of New South Wales, University of Queensland, University of Virginia, University of Technologico de Monterrey, University College Dublin, Waseda University, Japan, Shanghai Jiao Tong University and University of Delhi.

www.international.bham.ac.uk/scholarships.htm

The Network for International
Higher Education

Eligibility and application procedures

In order to be eligible for consideration candidates must:

- Have applied for a place to study on a one years taught Master's degree programme at the University of Birmingham and been issued with a student id number
- Be classified as overseas for fees purposes
- Have made adequate financial provision for study in the UK
- Not be in receipt of a full scholarship from any other source
- Be in the final year of a bachelor's degree at a partner Universitas 21 institution or have graduated from a partner Universitas 21 institution within the last five years of the proposed date of entry to the University of Birmingham
- Complete and submit a Scholarship Application form together with copies of academic transcripts and at least one academic reference by the closing deadline 28 May 2010

Please note

- Awards are offered for 2010 entry and cannot be deferred
- Scholarship awards will be deducted from the tuition fees payable to the University
- By submitting an application, candidates agree to their name being published as a scholarship winner and becoming an ambassador for the University
- International member institutions of Universitas 21 are: Fudan university; Lund University; McGill University; National Singapore of Singapore; University of Auckland; University of British Colombia; University of Hong Kong; University of Melbourne; University of New South Wales; University of Queensland; Tecnológico de Monterrey; University College Dublin; Waseda University; Shanghai Jiao Tong University and University of Delhi

Scholarships will be awarded on merit by a selection panel on the basis of the information provided on the Scholarship Application Form and supporting documents. The scholarship panel's decision is final. Successful candidates will be informed in writing by Mid-July 2010.

Please visit www.international.bham.ac.uk/fees_faq.htm for further details on cost of tuition and living expenses in Birmingham

Application forms and further guidance can be downloaded from the website.

www.international.bham.ac.uk/scholarships.htm

For further information on school and departmental scholarships please contact the departments directly.

Learn more

Peter Jordan

Student Funding Office

University of Birmingham, Edgbaston

Birmingham B15 2TT UK

Tel: +44 (0) 121 414 2705

Fax: +44 (0) 121 414 6637

Email: international-scholarship@bham.ac.uk

www.international.bham.ac.uk/scholarships.htm

